

CHARLOTTE EISVOGEL

Lennéstraße 35 ◊ 53113 Bonn

eisvogel@uni-bonn.de

EDUCATION

University of Bonn, BGSE

October 2023 – expected 2028

Ph.D. in Economics with integrated M.Sc.

- Applied Microeconomics with a focus on Gender Economics and Environmental Economics, Behavioral and Experimental Economics.
- Brown Bag Seminar, BGSE: Foreign Suffrage and Domestic Norms: Evidence from the Early-20th-Century U.S. January 2026

M.Sc.

October 2023 – September 2025

- Research Topic Courses: Recent Advances in Inequality Research, Prof. Dr. Boneva; Topics in Empirical Labor Economics, JProf. Dr. Schiprowski; Behavioral Finance, JProf. Dr. Iliewa; Risk, Time and Social Preferences: Measurement, Determinants, Origin, and Consequences, Prof. Dr. Dohmen.
- Master Thesis: Environmental Clubs in Practice: An Empirical Analysis

University of Delhi, Miranda House

August 2022 – December 2022

exchange semester: Indian Economy, Gender History

Ruprecht-Karls-Universität Heidelberg

April 2020 – September 2023

B.Sc. Economics and South Asian Studies

EXPERIENCE

Institute for Applied Microeconomics, Bonn

July 2025 - February 2026

Research Assistant

- Design and coding of online experiments (Qualtrics, oTree), data-quality checks, assist with data analysis (Python, R), hand-coded data construction and literature reviews, tables/figures for analysis-ready datasets, manuscript proof-reading, lecture preparation.

Project by John A. List (University of Chicago) and Luca Henkel (Erasmus University of Rotterdam) June 2025 - August 2025; December 2025 - February 2026

Research Assistant

- Systematic evaluation of experimental economics literature, structured coding of methodological features, assessment of research design and execution quality.

SUMMER SCHOOLS

Summer School on Internet based Data Collection (October 2025, University of Konstanz); Chicago School in Experimental Economics (September 2025, University of Bonn); Summer School in Gender Economics (July 2025, Lisbon School of Economics and Management); Seminar on Experiments with zTree (February 2025, University of Konstanz).

ENGAGEMENT

Bonn Graduate School of Economics (BGSE)

- Organization BGSE NewYears Reception January 2026
- Co-Organization Joint Workshop of IDOS, ECONtribute and University of Bonn February 2026
- Co-Organization monthly networking for Ph.D. students January 2026 - current
- Co-Organization of Bonn-Cologne-Frankfurt-Mannheim Conference Conference planned for May 2026

Women In Economics Subgroup- Bonn

June 2025 - current

Co-Founder, Organizer

- Lectures, networking events for FLINTA* across B.Sc, M.Sc. and Ph.D. levels in economics, and coordination with WiE chapters nationally.

Baden-Württemberg Stipendium

February 2023 - September 2023

Organizer in the Regional Chapter Heidelberg

Experiment e.V.

August 2019 - November 2023

Various Roles

- Volunteer Service in Karnataka, India (August 2019 - March 2020), Voluntary Engagement as Teamer, Local Coordinator, and in Volunteer Selection.

Student Body of the South Asian Institute

April 2021 – August 2022

Treasurer, Elected member of Student Body and Student Council, Student Representative in Department Council

4EU+Alliance

June 2021 – August 2022

Elected to the Student Committee

TECHNICAL AND LANGUAGE SKILLS

Computer Languages

R, Python

Software Skills

Microsoft Office (Excel, Word, PowerPoint), LaTeX, Stata, Zotero, z-Tree, oTree

Languages

German (native Speaker), English (C1), Latin (Latinum), Hindi (intermediate), French (beginner), Urdu (beginner)

References available upon request.